From the Director's Desk

"I will bless the Lord at all times." Psalms 34:1

We are continuing our efforts to improve our IXL scores. Students are reading and working on Across five Aprils, along with continuing our writing prompts.

Math Skills in IXL. Review and develop factoring integers, solving equations for parallel lines, revenue, w-4, income tax, and squares and roots, as well as identify parts of a right triangle and finding congruent triangles are where our focus will be.

Jesus is risen Matthew 28

We are re-enacting the Battle of the Alamo in middle school and the events of World War I in high school.

Ms. Z is emphasizing IXL with her students, as well as reviewing the skills introduced. She is continuing to work on dialogue writing, a building block exercise for writing dialogue between characters in stories. Students draw pictures and write dialogue in a series of speech bubbles for two characters stories.

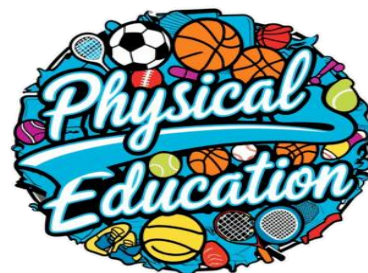

In Career Education, Ms. Wiley is preparing her students to do job interviews for the summer. She is placing emphasis on proper attire, speech, and overall appearance. Students are still reading A Time for Courage.

Mr. Walker is reviewing the cell cycle and mitosis whereby the students will compare the genetic makeup of cells before mitosis.
